

One Grateful Man.

"Look a here," said an old farmer who got on at Brighton, to the conductor of a Detroit, Lansing and Northern train a day or two ago. "I've been waiting half an hour for that boy to come 'round."

"What boy?"

"The feller with prize packages."

"They are not allowed on this road now."

"They hain't? What's the matter that they hain't?"

"Because passengers found so much fault with them."

"You don't say! I'd like to know who raised any rumpus about it."

"It was a general complaint; the public claimed that it was a swindle."

"Wall! wall! The public must be a curious sort o' critter. Why, sir, I paid twenty-five cents for a prize package on this road two years ago, and got 'huff o' pens, pencils, paper and envelopes to last me fifteen years, and on top o' that I drew a locket which the hull family have been takin' turns wearin' to meetin' ever since. Why, sir, I calkerlate I robbed that poor, innocent boy of jest about $10, and I was expectin' to see him today and offer him $5 to get the blamed thing off my conscience."—Detroit Free Press

THE readers of THE HERALD will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

WE WANT every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness, then the child appears to have taken cold, or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse, a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy would prevent the attack. Even after the rough cough has appeared, the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. The only safe way is to keep a 50 cent bottle of the Remedy in the house for use whenever the symptoms of the disease appear. For sale by Rose & Swango.

A Probable Candidate For Re-Election.

CHIEF JUSTICE W. H. HOLT, of the Court of Appeals, whose term expires next year, we learn from the papers in Eastern Kentucky, will probably be a candidate to succeed himself upon the Appellate bench. Judge Holt has made a most excellent Judge, painstaking and hardworking, and has made a host of friends in this city during his residence here, who would be greatly pleased should he be returned for another eight years by the voters of his district.—Frankfort Roundabout

Two Bipedes Met.

A GENTLEMAN slowly sauntering down Seventeenth Street, the other night, was startled by a shrill whistle, that sounded behind him. He naturally stopped and looked around, but saw no one. He started on, but had proceeded only a few yards, when the whistle, louder and shriller than before, was repeated. Again he looked around, and again he saw no one. Then his heart misgave him, for the hour was almost midnight. Vague, unutterable fears clutched at his soul, until his sleek locks grew to resemble the quills of that notoriously fretful porcupine.

But suddenly the mystery was solved. He chanced to glance overhead, thinking that probably, like the May Queen, he had heard the angels call, when he perceived a parrot in a cage that dangled from a second story window. The eyes of the feathered and featherless bipedes met, and the parrot quickly and appropriately remarked: "What are you looking at, you d-d fool?"—Philadelphia Record.

H. A. M. HENDERSON, formerly Superintendent of Public Instruction in Kentucky, contributes to the Covington Post an article against State publication of common school text books. He thinks Kentucky is not likely to improve on its present system for selecting text books, and would better let well enough alone.

"The State," he says, "can never turn publisher or contractor without damage to the schools and extravagant cost to the public treasury."

Lieutenant Governor Alford is a graduate and endorser of the Commercial College of Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky., which received Gold Medal at World's Exposition.

WILBUR R. SMITH, Pres.

THE State of Kentucky pays one cent more per pupil than is paid on an average in the United States. The average for the United States is $2.24, and the Kentucky per capita is $2.25. If the people of the State ever come to the conclusion to do their part in supporting the common schools of the country and stop growling about them, then would a brighter day dawn for our Commonwealth.
